Friend Garrison -

29

I have just received a letter, written some three weeks since, from Jaud. M^r. Neely, in which she again refers to Alexander Campbell. He is going ^{or has gone} to England, this month, and hence Jane thinks it important that the Liberator should use its ~~power~~ in exposing his position touching Slavery - Cyrus M^r. Neely, Jane's husband - himself a Disciple's Minister - asked for a place in the Harbinger to correct the ~~of~~ misrepresentations and expose the foul slanders of Pendleton, which you may recollect he published about you - Campbell promised soon, but the article Cyrus sent was not published - If you can get the Harbinger for Feb. you will see some reference to it. Stephen intended to procure the file of the Harbinger ^{for you,} which contains Campbell's bold and unequivocal defence of Slavery but forgot to do so when he had time - You know, however, who has it -

I look on an exposure of Campbell as very important, as his influence is very great in a large section of the West, and it is rapidly increasing - His College is educating its thousands - and his power over his Students is marvellous -

Will you have the kindness to publish the following notice in the Liberator -

Married in Cumberland R. I. 14th inst. Jason

Boston of Middle Haddam Conn. and Margaretta L.
H. West of Cumberland - George Stacy of Milford Mass.
being present at the solemnization -

I have a bridal card and its accompaniments for you, but in the multitude of my cares of going to house-keeping I forgot to send it by Stephen yesterday -

If it will not give you too much trouble will you ask Mr. ~~Storrs~~^{Hubbard} to have the mattress which he sends us well wrapped, so that it can be brought without getting at all soiled - I hope he will see to it, ^{also,} that it shall be clean ~~before~~^{on} leaving his shop -

Yours truly

Abby Kelley Foster

P.S. I am sorry I have not time to transcribe a copy of the article Cyrus Mc. Seely sent to the Har-tingue - It was only a plain statement of simple facts which none but a very guilty man could have withheld from his readers -
